Take a Stand Thursday~

We read an article about entitled 'Huge, Freed Pythons.' In it we discovered that people sometimes buy exotic pets and then let them loose when they figure out they are dangerous, difficult to care for or no longer any fun. Do you think we should ban the sale of exotic pets?

Free your mind Friday~ Talk about a book you read, a movie you saw, something you heard, something you're thinking about, anything else you'd like to share.

Reminder! We know you can't wait for the weekend and we know you want to relax and spend time with family and friends! Tell us something else!
